

Florida Response to Intervention

The Florida Response to Intervention (RtI) website provides a central, comprehensive location for Florida-specific information and resources that promote schoolwide practices to ensure highest possible student achievement in both academic and behavioral pursuits.

News

The Florida Department of Education's (FDOE) Response to Instruction / Intervention (RtI) Implementation Plan provides the framework to assist districts with critical components, definitions and applications to support the development of schoolwide implementations.

Download PDF

Florida RtI Introductory Training Online Course is a comprehensive online introduction to RtI, designed for state and district personnel (including administrators, specialists, teachers, and student services personnel) parent organizations, and institutions of higher education.

Information for Parents

This brochure is provided by the Florida Department of Education in collaboration with Bureau of Family and Community Outreach, Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services, Pasco County School District, and Florida's Positive Behavior Support Project. This publication has a focus on "Ensuring a Strong Start, Promoting a Bright Future" through an overview of RtI, how parents can be involved, key questions for parents to ask, and recommendations for parents if they believe their child is struggling.

June 9, 2009

The Training of Trainers Regional Institutes to train district identified personnel to provide professional development to School-Based Leadership Teams in their district in the implementation of RtI have been scheduled (see below). Each of these Institutes will be conducted over a 3-day period of time and will be followed by multiple technical assistance days for District Trainers during the 2009-2010 school year.

more